

This document provides background information and endpoint details for two external APIs requested for internal use approval within FinSight, an AI-powered financial intelligence platform developed for internal MAS use.

1. NewsAPI

Provider: News API, Inc. (newsapi.org) — UK-based company

Background

NewsAPI is a simple HTTP REST API for searching and retrieving live news articles from over 80,000 sources and blogs worldwide, including major outlets such as Reuters, Bloomberg, and CNA. Authentication is performed via an API key passed as a query parameter or X-API-Key HTTP header. All traffic is TLS-encrypted (HTTPS). No user personally identifiable information (PII) is transmitted — only search query strings and returned article metadata (title, URL, source, publication date).

Endpoints for Whitelisting

Purpose	Endpoint URL
Article search (primary)	https://newsapi.org/v2/everything
Top headlines	https://newsapi.org/v2/top-headlines
Source listing	https://newsapi.org/v2/sources

Whitelist base domain: newsapi.org

2. PitchBook API

Provider: PitchBook Data, Inc. — subsidiary of Morningstar, Inc. (NASDAQ: MORN)

Background

PitchBook is an enterprise financial data platform providing private market data including company profiles, funding rounds, investor information, and deal history. The API is accessed under an enterprise licence agreement. Authentication uses PitchBook's proprietary PB-Token scheme transmitted over HTTPS. All traffic is TLS-encrypted. Data retrieved is read-only market intelligence (company overviews, investor details, deal records) and contains no end-user PII.
